B Angel with Lute

This stamp features a musical angel that was originally part of a larger fresco painted by Melozzo da Forlì (1438-1494). Although few of Melozzo's works have survived, art historians have praised his skilled use of perspective, and he is sometimes considered one of the great fresco artists of his day. The original fresco fragment is now in the Vatican Pinacoteca (art museum).

A Abstract Expressionists

This ten-stamp souvenir sheet celebrates the artistic innovations and achievements of ten abstract expressionists, a group of artists who revolutionized art during the 1940s and 1950s and moved the U.S. to the forefront of the international art scene for the first time. Keyword: Abstract

The function of the artist is to express reality as felt. Robert Motherwell

ABSTRACT EXPRESSIONISTS

The abstract expressionists revolutionized art and moved the U.S. to the center of the international art scene during the 1940s and 1950s. Based primarily in New York City, this group of artists with radically different styles created a new visual language based on color, motion, and the expression of universal truths. In the process, they transformed the act of painting into a means of self-discovery, which was both uniquely American and utterly new.
